

SUGGESTED READING

...To enhance your Breakfast experience on January 30, 2008.

Powered by

Breakfast with the Chiefs, Great Minds in Dialogue: Dr. Robert Bell, Dr. Jonathan Irish and Dr. Tak Mak

Healthcare Quarterly, 8(3) 2005: Health, Healthcare and Nation-Building: A Three-Dimensional Approach to Innovation in Canada ... health sector as an engine of economic growth will contribute greatly to a sustainable healthcare system...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=17156>

Healthcare Policy / Politiques de Santé, 1(1) 2005: Reflections on a Conversation with Brian Postl: Can Healthcare Research Make a Difference to Policy and Practice? ... strategies to ensure a stable and reliable bridge between researchers and policy makers in healthcare...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=17565>

Healthcare Quarterly, 6(1) 2002: Creation of the CIHR: A Genuine Transformation in Health Research ... health research will comprise an ever-larger proportion of total research and development activity in Canada and throughout the world...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=16669>

HealthcarePapers, 2(3) 2002: AHSCs: More Important than Ever in the Century of Health Research ... revolution is creating a century of health research, characterized by the convergence of virtually all disciplines...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=17205>

Healthcare Quarterly, 8(1) 2005: Leaders' Forum on Health Research in Canada: The Urgent Need for Innovation ... health research leaders gathered in Ottawa to explore further the following policy questions and concerns...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=16954>

Healthcare Quarterly, 9(2) 2006: Opinion: Helping Canadians Understand the Opportunities for Health Research ... Industry and federal investments suffer because policy leadership falls between...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=18093>

Healthcare Policy / Politiques de Santé, 2(3) 2007: Wait Time Benchmarks, Research Evidence and the Knowledge Translation Process ... both the research funding process and research syntheses themselves can rapidly inform policy making in even the most heated of environments...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=18702>