

Longwoods.com

SUGGESTED READING

. . . To enhance your Breakfast experience on February 19, 2009.

Powered by

Breakfast with the Chiefs: Health Data, Indicators and Rankings: What do they matter, what do they measure?

HealthcarePapers, 8(4) 2008: Do HSMRs Really Measure Patient Safety? ... the experience of the Winnipeg Regional Health Authority in assessing the validity of the HSMR through...

<http://www.longwoods.com/home.php?cat=557>

Longwoods Review, 2(1) 2004: Why Did the World Health Organization Rate Canada's Health System as 30th? Some Thoughts on League Tables ... The WHO 2000 report was reviewed to analyze how these rankings were derived...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=17238>

Book: High Performing Healthcare Systems: Delivering Quality By Design ... An examination of leadership strategies, organizational processes and investments made to create and sustain improvement in healthcare...

<http://www.longwoods.com/home.php?cat=571>

Healthcare Policy / Politiques de Santé, 3(4) 2008: Indicator Madness: A Cautionary Reflection on the Use of Indicators in Healthcare ... The benefits of indicators are vitiated when they are seriously flawed...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=19918>

HealthcarePapers, 6(2) 2005: Performance Reports ... why public reporting of performance information in healthcare has not had more impact...

<http://www.longwoods.com/home.php?cat=406>

Essay: The Conference Board: Rank Amateurs with an Agenda? ... Might the Conference Board have an agenda other than improving the health of Canadians?...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=19942>

Essay: The Conference Board Answers ... purpose of the health category in the Report Card on Canada is to assess the health status...

<http://www.longwoods.com/product.php?productid=19952>

search for knowledge